Other Police Business;

- One officer remains off-duty on a work related injury.
- We are still awaiting delivery of the two new police vehicles. I expect their arrival any day now.
- Officer Adam Zeppuhar will be attending a two day training class in May on Cell Phone Investigations
- Officer Matt DeLallo will be attending a three day training class scheduled in May on Ground Escape Techniques that will certify him as an instructor. He will then train the other officers in the department.
- I participated in a phone conference with a project manager from Penn Dot concerning a traffic light project along the RT 51 corridor scheduled for 2014
- An unattended police unit was struck while parked behind the building on Pary Street
- Over twenty vehicles throughout the Borough were spray painted over a three night span.
