Other Police Business;

- One officer remains off-duty on a work related injury.
- Congratulations to Officers Josh Scott, William Meisel, and Sergeant Matthew DeLallo on their investigation of the recent robberies and assaults that were occurring within the borough. Because of their hard work and efforts, two individuals have been charged and taken into custody concluding the investigation.
- The police department is in the process of replacing all departmental handguns with the newest version of Glocks available at a minimum cost to the borough. The caliber and models will remain the same as we are currently using. The estimated cost is approximately $100.00 per handgun accompanied with the trade in.
- Sergeant Adam Zeppuhar is in the process of scheduling the departmental firearms qualifications that will take place at the Allegheny County Police Academy.
